You can help parents gift their children with a Catholic School Education. A Catholic school education is costly, yet invaluable. In addition to offering a challenging curriculum, these schools conduct programs that allow children to develop compassion and promote service to others.

As faith-based schools, students learn in an atmosphere that fosters the development of individuals with high moral standards and a penchant for social justice. In a nurturing environment, students are encouraged to accept others rather than exclude them, to understand the difference between right & wrong, and to commit themselves to emulate the life of Jesus Christ.

Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Newark have demonstrated academic excellence. Over 98% of their graduates enroll in post-secondary school education. Several schools have been awarded the National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence Award. This award is given to schools with student performance on standardized exams well above state & national averages.

Why donate?

A Catholic school education comes at a cost. While these schools provide an excellent education and a strong foundation for enrollees, many families struggle to meet the cost. The Miller Foundation provides tuition assistance to families with demonstrated financial need. While a challenging curriculum is essential, the foundation believes that a solid education, deeply rooted in Catholic values, will contribute to the formation of an individual who is not only prepared for success, but one with the potential to make a difference in society.

Now, more than ever, our very future depends on equipping our youth with the tools needed, not only to succeed as adults but also, to create a brighter future for our society.
